HORSHAM Artists

Our charity partner:

The Samaritans will be holding an Art Fair Fundraising Raffle in the Reception area during this event, featuring prizes of original artworks, prints and merchandise, donated by the artists.

Welcome to the Horsham Artists Contemporary Art Fair 2022

We are delighted to welcome you to our annual Contemporary Art Fair featuring 33 artists, creators and makers showing and selling their high quality affordable work from a central Horsham location over one special weekend. We are a unique, diverse and highly inclusive group of both emerging and professional artists working in a wide range of genres including painting, glass work, ceramics, textiles, jewellery, up-cycling and sculpture.

If you are searching for that unique piece of art for your home or office space, you have come to the right place. With a wide range of prices we have art to suit all budgets and environments.

For those of you interested in the creation process, we have a series of demonstrations taking place over the two days of the Fair. Details are set out towards the back of this brochure.

After the Fair, keep up to date with other events (such as our annual Art Trail in June) via social media – see below for the links. Also, visit our website to sign-up for our newsletter:

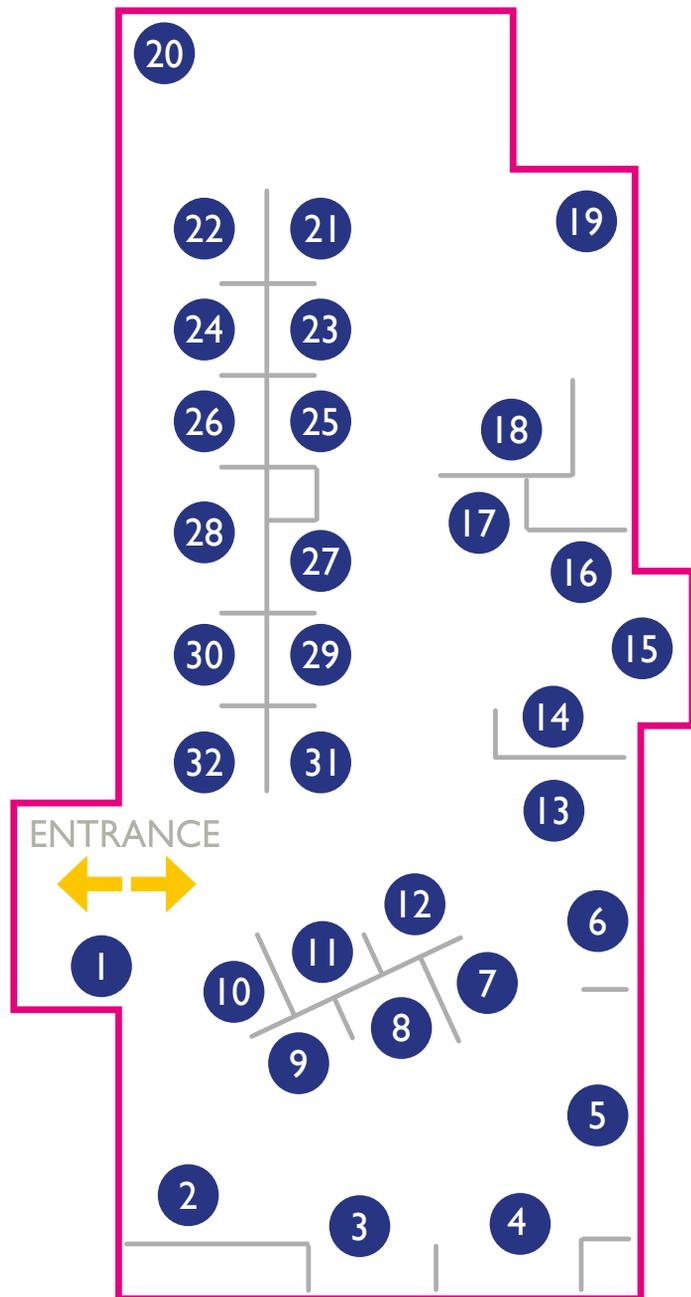

Enjoy your time with us and thank you for coming!

1

Irma Westerdijk

Sculptor

Irma is an artist and sculptor living in Horsham. She has a highly inventive, mainly figurative style and creates expressive sculptures with a lot of texture using a fabric hardener called Paverpol as a base, combining these with found objects. Irma shares her knowledge of Paverpol sculpting at workshops.

2

Denise Bliss

Jewellery

Denise enjoys creating new and individual designs in a range of techniques. She is particularly pleased with her recent range of organic 'melted-edge' rings and cuffs. Her torque necklaces are also rapidly gaining popularity as a fashionable and elegant jewellery item. All pieces can be individualised to order.

3

Cherry Parsons

Painter

Cherry is a fine artist from Horsham who paints a huge variety of subjects and has a solid fan base for each genre. Her large, textured seascape canvases are show-stoppers, and her colourful Seagull paintings have developed quite a cult following. Those who know Sussex will also recognise her local landscapes.

Facebook: @cherryparsonsart

4

Mark Wilson

Painter

Mark works in oils with a limited colour palette. His tools are palette knives, rags and his fingers, used to blend and move paint on the canvas. Mark wants viewers of his work to hear and feel as well as see, so that what they experience when looking at his work is more like a filmic narrative.

5

Angela Jenkinson

Fused glass and jewellery

Angela is a fused glass artist who makes wall art, vases, bowls, hanging decorations and jewellery, mainly using nature and the landscape as inspiration. Wall pieces involve cutting sheet glass, which is arranged on a piece of base glass, often including small elements to create texture and is then kiln-fired.

6

Anne Lim

Felt and fibre artist

Anne is a textile artist working in felt and fibre, this allows her unlimited freedom to create using shapes and colour. The inspiration for her handmade felt pictures is mostly drawn from the natural world. Wool fibres and natural cork fabric is used to create original jewellery pieces and bags.

7

David Meeking Painter

davidmeekingart.com
Instagram: davidmeekingart

David paints semi-abstract sea and landscapes, in oil on canvas, observing changing seasons and the effects upon the coastline. Building an atmosphere through texture and mark-making with no reference to any specific point of place, he prefers the viewer to read into the work, taking them on a journey of imagination.

8

Dominic Simpson Painting and drawing

dominicsimpson.com
art@dominicsimpson.com

Dominic uses bold colours and expressive mark-making to create impactful images with high contrast, exploring the possibilities of different media and techniques. His artworks include local and West Country landscapes, portraiture and still life, and he's interested in the end-to-end process of producing art that's ready to hang. Dominic won the Worthing Portrait Artist of the Year award 2021.

9

Pam Clarke Painter

pamclarke89@hotmail.com
01403 267811

Pam is an art college graduate who spent a significant period of employment as a graphic designer and illustrator, with a lifetime of art appreciation. She sees her work as 'still in progress' and inspired by form and colours in nature. Pam finds attempting to create a perfect composition infinitely rewarding.

10

Kat Giannini Painter and illustrator

katgiannini.com
kathsgiannini@gmail.com

Kat is a wildlife artist. Formally a ballroom dancer, she uses movement, negative space and attention to detail to create the beauty she sees in animals and wildlife. She works in pencil, watercolour and acrylic paint on glass. Her designs are also printed onto greetings cards, tea towels and bio-friendly wrapping paper.

11

Penny Hart-Davies Mixed media painter

pennyhart-davies.com
Instagram: hart_of_this_artist

Penny creates semi-abstract images inspired by the natural world and ecological themes. Whilst walking the hills of the South Downs, or the coast beyond, she experiences the changing flora and fauna, beyond observation of physical walking scenes. For the Art Fair, she includes a new collection, connecting her various journeys through hill, meadow, wood and coastal paths.

12

Pat Wright Oil painter

patwrightz@hotmail.com
Instagram: @patwrightrz

Pat's recent inspirations have come from Antony Gormley's vast installation 'Another Place' on Merseyside. Her lifetime connection with the food industry draws her to reimagining the vintage kitchens at Petworth House. She also likes to capture the panorama and the uniformity of the planting in vineyards near her home.

13

Louisa Venables

Painter

venablesart.co.uk

louisa.venables@gmail.com

Louisa is a painter who takes great enjoyment from creating striking abstract artwork using bold vibrant colours and shapes. She loves to immerse herself in her work which she finds very uplifting. A recent high-point for Louisa has been receiving a commission from AXA Insurance to produce six pieces of artwork.

14

Alison Ingram

Painting

alisoningram.co.uk

alison@alisoningram.co.uk

Alison is a well-known professional wildlife artist from Warnham. She has won many awards for her distinctive, colourful interpretations of the wildlife she encounters. She mainly paints in oil and exhibits annually at BirdFair in Rutland, she is regularly Artist in Residence at Nature in Art, Gloucester and exhibits locally, nationally and internationally.

15

Lindsey Pearson

Painter

justlindsey.co.uk

linsjpearson57@gmail.com

Lindsey adores the fluidity, unpredictability and versatility of watercolour. The luscious colours constantly inspire her and enable her to work in an expressive, semi-abstract style. Lindsey loves to work 'en-plein air' especially in Venice and locally in the Sussex landscape where she can evoke a sense of place, feeling and mood.

16

Tracie Callaghan

Painter/Jeweller

traciecallyaghan.com

info@traciecallyaghan.com

Tracie uses a variety of different media to create exciting and unusual artworks that celebrate the beauty of the natural world. Her work explores the relationship between subject matter and the media used, be that through use of colour, historical or geographical context to create depth and share her passion for our natural treasures.

17

Lucy O'Callaghan

Painter and up-cycling

Instagram: evelien_cascada_art

Etsy: EvelienCascadaArt

Lucy is a mixed-media artist from Horsham. Her materials include acrylic paints, marbling inks and alcohol inks which are often merged with the use of stencils, gold leaf, glitter and temporary tattoos. Lucy has a keen eye for pattern and the blending of bright colours which she plays with to create her unique pieces of artwork.

18

Lesley Taylor

Sculptor

lesley-taylor.com

studio@lesley-taylor.com

Lesley is a self-taught contemporary artist based in Warnham. Her mixed media three-dimensional boxed sculptures encapsulate a moment in time, involving the careful play of light with shadow. Much of the content of her work is brilliant white, with striking splashes of colour for dramatic contrast. All of Lesley's work is designed to make you smile!

19

André Westerdijk

Up-cycling

Instagram: awdesignupcycling
Facebook: AWDesignUpcycling

André lives and works in Horsham, as an upcycling artist. It gives him great pleasure to take vintage items out of their original context to create something new. He enjoys seeing a smile on someone's face when they look at his creations and say; "Wow, I would not have thought of that".

20

Alison Crowe

Jeweller

alisoncrowejewellery.co.uk
Instagram: alisoncrowejewellery

Alison produces handmade precious metal jewellery designed in a contemporary style using a variety of traditional and non-traditional techniques. She draws inspiration from natural forms and early 20th century art. Alison likes to source unusual and beautiful gemstones to set in her jewellery pieces which are hallmarked by the London Assay Office.

21

Sue Collins

Printmaker

suecollinsart.com
suecollinsart@hotmail.com

Sue's greatest inspiration is the beautiful Sussex countryside where she lives. She creates stylised, multi-colour linocut prints based on a combination of her photography and sketching, using the reduction method of printmaking. Her Hassocks based garden gallery and studio can be visited by appointment.

22

Francesca Apicella

Painter

francescaapicella.com
missfrancescaapicella@gmail.com

Francesca's paintings are inspired by vintage glamour with a contemporary twist. Often featuring lace and geometric shapes, the finished pieces have a certain humanesque quality and avant-garde finish. Pieces include "Philautia" from the Greek meaning self-love, and "Serpentina" from ideas about progression and change. She often exhibits her work around the South Coast.

23

Paul Baden

Sculptor

paulbadensculptor.wordpress.com
pauledwardbaden@gmail.com

Paul brings his cartographic experience of map making into his artwork. He specialises in wood carvings made from layered woods. His pierced lattice works examine the relationships of space and the interconnectedness of things. In his figurative work, Paul manipulates scale and perspective to create intriguing three dimensional landscapes for the hand and eyes to explore.

24

Iris Bishop

Textiles

irisbishop.com
irisbishopdesign@gmail.com

Iris is an artist and designer with an innovative approach to textile design, combining weaving, knitting, knotting and other 'sculptural' techniques. She loves to incorporate vintage and re-cycled materials into her work, making every garment and accessory a unique 'piece'. Commissions for individual garments are always welcome - using high quality materials and with a professional finish.

25

Karin Pfannenschmidt-Clack
Mixed media painting

kpfannenschmidt@googlemail.com

Karin's semi-abstract paintings are often inspired by the natural world - landscapes, sea and sky, allowing the viewer a degree of personal interpretation and imagination. Using mainly acrylic paint, Karin is interested in the process and the manipulation of the medium and enjoys exploring and developing new techniques and styles.

26

Vicky Glyn Textiles

myvisionshared.com
vickyglyn123@gmail.com

Vicky at 'My Vision Shared', is a textile artist who designs and makes her dazzling patchwork wall-hangings and quilted throws at The Mill in Horsham. The key qualities of her work are the use of exciting colour schemes. Her stunning designs are timeless yet contemporary in style, using combinations of pattern and colour.

27

Colleen Conti
Painter

colleencontiart.com
paintedplaces@gmail.com

Colleen's work is often characterised by her lasting preoccupation and distinctive handling of light. Having directly experienced being in an environment, and recorded with drawings and photographs, Colleen makes a series of related works aroused by her feelings for that place. Recently she has been painting seascapes from visits to Cornwall and Dorset.

28

Shared stand

Kevin Meeten
Painter

kevinmeeten@hotmail.co.uk
07763 750876

Kevin draws upon a lifelong passion for sci-fi literature, cinema, TV and comic books, creating stylised portraits of iconic characters and situations, and abstract futuristic landscapes and cityscapes. He paints with acrylic adding unusual mixed media, such as metal, plastic, electronic components and watch parts, sometimes incorporating 3D features.

28

Shared stand

Greta Meeten
Textiles and mixed-media

gretameeten@yahoo.co.uk
Facebook: Thisisagem

Greta has a passion for textiles; thriving on finding and experimenting with different methods of transforming fabrics and yarn; be it knitting, dressmaking or various forms of hand and machine embroidery. Driftwood is often featured in the creation of her 'miniature worlds' as she is captivated by shapes and textures created by the sea.

29

Jo Willis Oil painter

artfromjow.com
artfromjow@gmail.com

Jo's inspiration for her contemporary canvases comes from many and varied sources. Her subjects are wide-ranging, from beaches to woodlands and trees, to her life studies, largely of people. All exhibit a graphic quality focusing on tone and composition. She has exhibited widely in the South of England and London as well as locally.

From conception to completion: the journey of a quirky artwork
30 minutes

Lesley is a self-taught artist who creates unique and witty boxed sculptures. Her work is presented in brilliant white, containing a dramatic splash of colour to draw the eye of the viewer.

In this talk, she will explain where she gets her inspiration from, how she plans her approach and the processes she uses to complete her quirky creations.

Lesley will use video extracts to illustrate some of the more technical aspects and you can expect some humorous anecdotes based on her experiences.

Penny Hart-Davies
Mixed-media painter
2.45pm • Saturday 22 October
1.30pm • Sunday 23 October
Creating texture with pastel
30 minutes

Penny is a post-graduate trained, mixed-media artist, and also lecturer and art tutor of more than thirty years standing. She is known for exploring how different mediums can work together. Pastel is quick to work with and used in many of her pieces. The feel of texture is created using broad strokes, blending or mark-making, though is also great at highlighting hidden textures created with other media.

Watch Penny work with different papers and other base materials or building in 'rubbing' techniques.

The results will be experimental pieces at home in a sketchbook or presented on the wall.
